Dear Carrie:

You must have missed one of my letters. I told you that we all moved and thanked you for the dollar. Carrie, you don't need to try to help me after times.
I should be the one to help you but I can't. I suppose your try will cost you quite a bit.

Have you heard about the murder out here? Some fellow took a 12 yr old girl and held her for $500. ransom. When he got the money he tossed a sack to the father and drove away. The father thought that she was tied and gagged but she was in the sack all cut to pieces. Her whole body wasn't in the sack, they found parts of her in two or three places. Every one is talking about it. There is $10,000 ~~to~~ reward for his capture dead or alive. He has been here since Sat night when it happened. They know that he is in Los Angeles but they can't find him.

I had forgotten all about owing Grandma any thing. You tell her how it is. I'll have to pay her, that's awful to let that go so long.
I could have paid it when I first came here but I didn't think of it.

If you don't want to ask Jane for that money for me I can do it but I hate to. If you don't think it's a good idea I suppose I can stay here and do my best.

Well I can't write any more now there's so much noise here. A nine year old spoiled cat and two bull dogs and a canary. They just about drive me crazy.

Bill.
